The School Exhibition—A Large Crowd in Attendance—A Complete Success—Several Cases Disposed of by the Mayor.

The exhibition given at the opera house last night by the First Ward school was an entire success, and reflected great credit upon the scholars, the principal and his assistants.

The pupils formed in line in front of the school building on Commerce street, and promptly at 7:15 o'clock started for the opera house, headed by the principal, Prof. W. M. Graybill. The line of march was down Commerce street to Salem avenue to the opera house, and the children as they passed along the street presented a very pretty appearance. The seating capacity of the opera house was taxed to its utmost to accommodate the large crowd that had assembled to witness the exhibition, and quite a large sum was realized, with which money the school will be supplied with maps, globes, etc. The program was well selected and the scholars acted their parts admirably.

The program was "Christmas At Home," by the whole school; "The Little Mothers," by second primary grade; "The Husband's Experience," by Cabell Taylor, "Day and Night," tableau, by first grammar grade; "Flag Drill," by fourth primary grade; "Soldiers Rest," song by Miss Laura Bennett; "Cleveland's Marriage," by second grammar grade; "The Little Quakers," and "Song of the Sea," by vice-principal's grade; "The Death of Roderic Dhu," closing song, "The Morning Invitation," by the whole school.

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.

A Society Wanted for Its Prevention.

A Good Move.

"There has been a good deal of complaint recently about cruelty to animals in this neighborhood," said Judge Samuel G. Williams to a TIMES reporter yesterday. "and a prominent and wealthy gentleman came to me this morning, and said that he would give five hundred dollars towards starting a society for the prevention of cruelty to animals."

"A short time after that a leading divine also met me, and said that he would do all he could to aid the matter. I wish you would say, through the column of the TIMES, that it would be a good thing for the Mayor to call a meeting for the purpose of forming the society. It is wrong to treat dumb beasts cruelly and I think the people are willing to go into a society to have it stopped."

A Good Beginning.

The Evening World, the new afternoon paper, made its first appearance yesterday. The paper is well printed, the matter is arranged with taste, and the sheet taken all together has a decidedly city-like appearance.

The World Co. is composed of Messrs. J. P. Ackerly and Charles H. Cox, both practical printers of experience, and Mr. A. H. Dooley, who has been employed for some time in the machine works.

Mr. George Button, a vigorous writer, is editor, and Mr. Louis Hall, well known around town, is city editor.

If the initial number is a fair specimen of what the paper will be in the future, the Evening World will win a deserved success. The people of Roanoke appreciate newspaper enterprise more, perhaps, than those of any other city of its size in the country, and to that fact in a large measure has been due, a portion at least of the phenomenal growth of the city in the past few years.

Mayor's Court.

Mary Smith was before Mayor Carr yesterday charged with the larceny of twenty dollars, and on a plea of guilty, was sent to jail for fifteen days.

Nanny Bell took a drop too much and His Honor fined her five dollars for being drunk and disorderly.

C. P. Spruce was also fined three dollars for the same offense.

There were four persons charged with carrying concealed weapons. They were John Stokes, Henry Word, Gabe Waller and J. P. Jones. The parties were all found guilty, and the first three fined twenty dollars and Jones was given thirty dollars.

A Timely Gift.

As the TIMES reporter called at the Baptist parsonage yesterday to get the program of the Christmas exercises at that church, a messenger came up with a splendid new hat for the pastor, Rev. O. F. Flippo, a gift from his friend Mr. T. C. Oakley, the contractor. It was a handsome, graceful gift, for which Mr. Flippo is very grateful. New Year's day is both the anniversary of the pastor's birth and marriage.

A valuable mine of dark ochre has been discovered on the premises of Mr. Joseph Crane, at Cloverdale, near Roanoke City. This amber ochre is worth $6.00 a ton, and is in great demand for paints. The mines will be worked in January.

Mr. James Peters' house on the Franklin road about three miles from this city, was entirely consumed by fire Sunday night.

Webb Simon was arrested before Justice S. W. Howerton yesterday for assaulting Charles Johnson, colored. He was fined $5 and cost.

Fifteen citizens request the TIMES to ask why the street lamp was removed from the corner of Campbell and Park streets.
